

SCHOOL BOARD HAS A MEETING

At the regular meeting of the Board of Education yesterday the offer of the Hawaiian Evangelical Association for the free use of the Portuguese Mission and school buildings on Miller street, was accepted. The entire premises will be put under the control of the board, rent free for a year, to begin July 1st. The school which formerly has been sectarian in character will in the future be open to all classes, with no regard for religious affiliation. Other nationalities, as well as Portuguese who have had exclusive use of the school hitherto, will be admitted. For the present at least the teaching corps as now constituted, will be retained. Miss Claire Borrow was appointed principal of Kekaha School on Kauai, and E. W. Barnard was appointed school agent for South Hilo, the district having been divided.

Tut Over Pacific Cable.

WASHINGTON, March 12.—During the debates today Corliss of Michigan, father of the government cable bill, and Richardson, Democratic leader, who favors the Commercial Cable bill, had a hot tilt. Corliss made the charge that Richardson had allied himself with those opposed to the cable, and that the Commercial Company was in reality in league with the English companies which own the Eastern cables. Richardson answered that the Commercial Cable Company had spent some money in preparing for the laying of the cable and surely was ready to carry out the work. He contended that the Commercial proposition was sufficient to safeguard every interest of this country, but that the clause of the government ownership bill which gave a share of the cable business to the Western Union Company, showed where the monopoly was concealed.

Architect Newcomb Sorensen.

E. A. P. Newcomb, the architect, accompanied by Miss Newcomb, departed yesterday for the Alameda for the Coast, his destination being Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. Newcomb has been called to design buildings for a gentleman there. Friends decked both with beautiful leis. A pleasing feature of their going away was the appearance on the dock of a glee club from the Kamehameha Girls' School, which serenaded Mr. Newcomb, singing his original composition, "Hawaii," a hymn composed especially for Kamehameha School. The composer stood at the top of the gangplank during the rendition of the pretty selection, and in response, threw a number of leis to the singers.
